

Diverse Voices

A JUNETEENTH CELEBRATION SCHEDULE OF EVENTS JUNE 17-25, 2023

presented by Washington Revels and Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture

Saturday Kensington's 2nd Annual Juneteenth Celebration

JUNE 17

12 to 4 pm | St. Paul Park, 10564 St. Paul St., Kensington, MD

An afternoon of fun educational activities for all ages and a commitment to building a better future together. Includes a performance by Washington Revels Jubilee Voices.

Co-sponsored by the Town of Kensington, the Racial Justice Committee, and Kensington's Historical Society.

Daily The Daily Antidote of Song — "Juneteenth Week" presented by Carpe Diem Arts

JUNE 18-25

12 pm | Zoom & Facebook | carpediemarts.org/daily-antidote-of-song

Get your daily boost every day at noon! Artists will offer songs of freedom and social justice—and the stories behind them. Live from Glen Echo Park, June 24 & 25!

Monday Singing the Journey: Juneteenth Joy presented by the Office of Historic Alexandria

JUNE 19

2 pm | Market Square, 301 King St., Alexandria, VA

Washington Revels Jubilee Voices will present traditional African American music and spoken word that traces the history of African Americans from enslavement to freedom.

Co-sponsored by Washington Revels and the Alexandria Black History Museum.

Tuesday Voices of History and Hope: The Past and Future of Juneteenth in Montgomery County

JUNE 20

7 pm | Zoom (Registration required: montgomeryhistory.org/voicesofhistory)

A panel of local leaders discuss their work to preserve and promote the county's African American history through community, agriculture, film, and the arts. Hosted by Montgomery History.

Wednesday Juneteenth Community Sing presented by Carpe Diem Arts

JUNE 21

6:30 pm | Zoom & Facebook | carpediemarts.org/community-sing

Celebrate Juneteenth with music from the African American tradition, the Civil Rights Movement, protest songs and more, featuring area and regional artists.

Thursday Book Talk with Author Imani Perry presented by Arlington Public Library

JUNE 22

6:30 pm | Barbara M. Donnellan Auditorium, 1015 N. Quincy St., Arlington, VA

Library director Diane Kresh will lead a discussion of Perry's new novel as part of Arlington Reads.

Performance by Washington Revels Heritage Voices at 5:45 pm. RSVP required.

Friday Jazz Night in D.C. presented by Westminster Presbyterian Church

JUNE 23

6 pm | Westminster Presbyterian Church, 400 I St. SW, Washington, DC

A DC jazz institution with the best musicians and the best jazz lovers, featuring a tribute to Freddie Hubbard with the Michael Thomas Quintet. RSVP required.

Sunday FESTIVAL OF FREEDOM presented by Washington Revels/Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts & Culture

JUNE 25

11 am – 5 pm | Glen Echo Park, 7300 Macarthur Blvd, Glen Echo, MD

A day of family-friendly activities, this celebration commemorates the desegregation of the former Glen Echo Amusement Park in 1960 and features storytelling, hands-on arts & crafts activities, carousel rides, and live music performances by Heritage Voices, Dan+Claudia Zanes, Hubby Jenkins, and Grammy-nominated Sweet Honey in the Rock®.

Learn more at: revelsdc.org/juneteenth or glenechopark.org/diversevoices